Sunny Days's Page

Hello Real Appeal Readers! I am back! And I am here to totally tell you about our vacation from the Magazine!

Sunny: What was so great about this summer, Cheryl?

Cheryl: I don't know, maybe getting my comet license.

Sunny: How about you Fred Man?

Fred: Probably going to comet convention. Looking at the new Thundersparks was totally awesome!

Sunny: And you Davis?

Davis: I don't know. Maybe just having nothing to do all day and sleep in until 11:00.

Cheryl: I totally agree!

Fred: What about you Sunny, what was your favorite part of the summer?

Sunny: Actually, I kind of liked going to the Star & Space Mall with Cheryl. I got this can of wax stuff that makes me stand out more!

All except Sunny: Ohh! Sunny!

Fred: We heard you bragging about it ever since you got it! Which is like a million times!

Jason comes in: Actually it was 1,234,877 times, but I mean who's keeping track?

Sunny: Okay, so see you later Jason. That's all folks! I mean folts! Flots! Folks! There!

Ellie's Guide to Everything

Topic: Perfection

Dear Ellie,

There is this girl in my grade who is nice enough, but she is super competitive and she seems perfect. And that really bugs me because, I'm not exactly the smartest (seems like she is), and what I love to do she seems better at. Help me please!

Your friend,
Tearing My Hair Out

Dear Tearing Your Hair Out,

First of all, relax. Think about your good qualities. Take a deep breath and say, "I am great, I can do anything." That will do WONDERS. Then go to school and be the best you can be. And remember, no one is perfect. I kind of have a problem like yours. But I tell myself, "No one is perfect," and I get through my day with a smile.

Your good friend,
Ellie*

"Nobody's Perfect" by Miley Cyrus/Hannah Montana

Hey girls, write to me! I am now on the web at elliehasyour-back@hotmail.com. C'mon you'll write to me!

Your good friend

Sunny: I find the oddest pictures of myself...

Explanation

Hi, I am here to give you an explanation of what this make your own magazine thing is. YOU WRITE THE ARTICLES. YOU WRITE THE STORIES AND YOU, YES YOU READ THEM WHEN YOU ARE FINISHED. That's all there really is. This edition, and all other editions like this are going to be written by you. That's right. You.

AND the top story winner will receive a special set of stickers (if we can find the keys to the cabinet. No seriously, we have looked everywhere!) including me, Cheryl, Fred, Davis, and a SURPRISE STICKER! Umm no, it is not of me.

You will not have to enter the SunnyCode to write the article or story and send it in! Heck, even Niota is writing an article! I am not kidding! See page 4!!! Anyway we are really looking forward to as many people as possible to write an article. Now, for the rules...

1. No copying of a previous article in the magazine. You try and think of another subject. Seriously, there are a million more out there.
2. Do not have the Days Gang talking to each other as if in conversation, although you may end your article as SUNNY RULES!
3. Oh, and also, if you win or lose the story contest you did your best.
4. One more thing. I don't want to have to proofread every word in the whole article. Please, dictionaries are available.

Hello, my name is Nieta. Nieta Days.

Yes. I finally got the guts to show myself. I was at this one picture studio thing and you could choose a border for your picture. This one looked pretty sweet to me.

I will tell you a little more about myself, cause you don't know much about me.

I am a girl who is going into the third grade. I live with my brothers and sister. Yeah, I just live with one sister but I probably have what, 7,000 others (The rest are aunts and cousins and who knows what!) I am allergic to Sizzling Cider, and I hate Moondust. I don't see why Sunny likes that stuff. It's just sugar. I love Sparkling Gems though. They are just small pieces of hard candy you put in your mouth and suck on.

Maybe we will meet again next month.

Okay 6th grade, new pump, new monitor, what do I do? Well I would lay low and just be normal.
