

Sunny: Wow... is it really that time of year again to wind down and relax?

Jason: Well I hope so! I've had enough with school!

Cheryl: Jason! Don't criticize school!

Niota: I plan to read 1,000 books over the summer!

Fred: I plan to try and get my comet's license for like the millionth time.

Davis: I'm telling you Fred, if you would've bought that Xbox you could've trained!

Sunny: Actually Davis, Doug would try and make you glued to the Xbox.

Jason: He's already possessed, he doesn't need an Xbox.

Davis: Possessed?

Sunny: ANYWAY, I hope you all have a great summer...wait, where's Aurora?

Aurora: Sorry I'm late. Have a great summer!

Sunny Days's Page

Hello. Welcome back to Sunny Days's Page. As always, I'm your host, Sunny!

Aurora: Ahem!

Sunny: Oh, and co-

hosting me is Aurora Goldsky! What do you think about school getting out, Aurora?

Aurora: Well I—

Doug: You're not getting out of school, Sunny, look at this report card of yours.

Sunny Days's Report Card

Sunny: Umm... this isn't my report card Doug. It's yours.

Doug: No it's not!

Aurora: Then why does it say Norma Elementary School instead of North Star Middle School, which Sunny and I go to?

Doug: Umm... well I guess I didn't fix all of the mistakes...

Sunny: Sure. Now you burst in with your summer-school earning report card and waste all of my space for my page!

Aurora: Our page!

Coming Soon

There will be an article right here talking about books! I'm not positively sure what it will be called, but in the Summer Edition, there will be an article talking about how two people rate some of the most popular books that you may (or may not) want to read!

If everything goes as planned (and they decide to do the article) well... I guess we have a new page to read without Sunny hogging it all up!

So be on the lookout!

R Oh, and to keep yourself reading over the summer, there is probably a reading program at your local library, and I hear that there is a summer reading program that if you fill out the requirements, YOU GET A FREE BOOK! If you want to suggest a book for these girls to read and rate, be sure to submit a comment somewhere on Real Appeal World! It will still be up over the summer, so keep checking it out for new games and movies!

Contests

Well, there wasn't a contest last month because it was the quiz edition, but over the summer, please remember to submit your own articles to the Summer Edition! Lets sum it up on the rules...

1. No copying of a previous article in the magazine. You try and think of another subject. Seriously, there are a million more out there.
2. Do not have the Days Gang talking to each other as if in conversation, although you may end your article as SUNNY RULES!
3. Oh, and also, if you win or lose the story contest you did your best.
4. One more thing. I don't want to have to proofread every word in the whole article. Please, dictionaries are available.

And... the one who submits the best article also wins a pack of stickers including Sunny, Cheryl, Fred, Niota, Jason, and Davis (and maybe a surprise sticker...). If you aren't the champion of this contest, you may also win a sticker drawing that may even have a sticker of Doug or Aurora! Note: Sometimes my sticker machine doesn't work, so I may be handing out pictures instead of stickers. Although stickers would be really fun...

Title: The Mistake of A Year Ago

A human school year ago, my brother Davis was on the lunch menu, shouted my middle name out to the public, and was a forevermore mind slave to my cousin, Doug.

Davis, you will always be the dud star of the family.

Ellie's Guide to Everything

Dear Ellie,

I have a really big problem. I'm moving away soon. I have a best friend, and she is as sad as I am about moving away. We promised each other that we'd write everyday or send emails, but I don't think that's enough to keep our friendship alive. May I remind you I'm moving VERY far away.

Help me,

Friends or Not?

Dear Friends or Not?,

I am very sad you are moving. I have a good friend of mine that is moving, and I know how hard it is. My advice is that you two spend the most time together as possible. You are going to miss her, but at your new school you will make new friends. Don't forget her, but just make sure that when you leave you have good memories of her. Try to keep as well in contact as possible. You guys can still be friends!!

Your friend,

Ellie

What you should be listening to...

There for you

Ge e a new look... better not drink me or else!

Dinner is Served!

On today's menu: The Sarah and Alex Snackaroo

Today Chef Sarah asked a fellow chef for some good, easy snacks, and she decided this was the one that she'd like to show all of you!

Ingredients:

A quarter of a banana

Two graham crackers

Peanut Butter

Preparation:

All you need is a clean counter top, the ingredients and a knife. (Take caution with use of knife) Take your two graham crackers and spread as much peanut butter as you want on both of them. Cut up your banana and put them on your graham crackers. Put it together, and well, you have the Sarah and Alex Snackaroo!

Enjoy,

Chef Sarah

This recipe gets 1 out of 5 hats. Your only real trouble is being careful with the knife!

Boing! I'm a basketball! Look for my other crazy pictures in this issue! Also try to find the Sunny-Code, even though there isn't a contest this month that you'll need it.

Hanna's Health

Well the snow is gone hopefully forever. But the sun is coming up and I will tell you something very important. Well you have to wear sunscreen or else you can get skin cancer (melanoma) if you get really sunburned. The most important time to wear sun screen is when you are outside in the sun (we all knew that!). Well that's it for now!

Hanna

But Wait!!!

What kind of sunscreen do I get?

I recommend sunscreen that has a SPF of 25 or higher to protect you from the sun. Also make sure you have bug spray for those nasty mosquitoes!

Yet another of my newest photos... do I get paid for making ridiculously weird photos of myself? No? Darn.
